

Fondazione
di Sardegna

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI CAGLIARI

II "Antonio Pigliaru" Workshop

From Sardinia to the World: The Impact of Malaria and Other Infectious Diseases on Health and Economic Development

Cagliari, June 21, 2024

Aula Rossa, Cittadella dei Musei, Piazza Arsenale 1, Cagliari

Program:

8:45: Welcome and institutional greetings

9:00 – 11:30: Roundtable on the Sardinian Project (& beyond)

Chair: Alberto Bisin (New York University)

Andrea Bagnato (Centre for Research Architecture at Goldsmiths College)

Marcus Hall (University of Zurich)

Alberto Laddomada (European Commission)

Bruno Moonen (Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation)

Eugenia Tognotti (University of Sassari)

11:30 – 12:00: Break

12:00 – 13:30: Fighting Infectious Diseases Today

Chair: Mario Macis (Johns Hopkins University)

Marcella Alsan (Harvard Kennedy School)

Jessica Cohen (Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health)

Elisa Maffioli (University of Michigan School of Public Health)

13:30 – 15:00: Lunch break

15:00 – 16:30: The Long-run effect of infectious diseases

Chair: Luigi Guiso (EIEF)

Paolo Buonanno (University of Bergamo): Social Adaptation to Diseases and Inequality: Historical Evidence from Malaria in Italy

Sergio Galletta (ETH Zurich): The Effect of the 1918 Influenza Pandemic on Income Inequality: Evidence from Italy

Comments: Mounu Prem (EIEF) and Claudio Deiana (University of Cagliari)

16:30 – 17:30: Future challenges and preparedness for infectious disease pandemics

Chair: Alberto Laddomada (European Commission)

Marcella Alsan (Harvard Kennedy School)

Marcus Hall (University of Zurich)

Bruno Moonen (Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation)

Organizers: Alberto Bisin (New York University), Claudio Deiana (University of Cagliari), Luigi Guiso (EIEF), Mario Macis (Johns Hopkins University), Marco Nieddu (University of Cagliari), Francesco Pigliaru (University of Cagliari). The workshop is organized with the financial support of Fondazione di Sardegna.