Masters Thesis

- Title Marginal Taxation and International Mobility of the Tax Base: The European Market of Footballers
- Supervisors Professor Rinaldo Brau
- Description: The aim of this thesis is to explore and estimate the effects of top marginal income taxation on European football players' choices of location, starting from the paper of Kleven, Landais and Saez (AER, 2013). In this work I have used a Random Parameter Logit Model in order to exploit the information provided by individual level variables.
